(c) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall take effect on October 1, 1993.

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

For necessary expenses of the General Accounting Office, including not to exceed $7,000 to be expended on the certification of the Comptroller General of the United States in connection with official representation and reception expenses; services as authorized by 5 U.S.C. 3109 but at rates for individuals not to exceed the per diem rate equivalent to the rate for level IV of the Executive Schedule (5 U.S.C. 5315); hire of one passenger motor vehicle; advance payments in foreign countries in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 3324; benefits comparable to those payable under sections 901(5), 901(6) and 901(8) of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (22 U.S.C. 4081(5), 4081(6) and 4081(8)); and under regulations prescribed by the Comptroller General of the United States, rental of living quarters in foreign countries and travel benefits comparable with those which are now or hereafter may be granted single employees of the Agency for International Development, including single Foreign Service personnel assigned to AID projects, by the Administrator of the Agency for International Development—or his designee—under the authority of section 636(b) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2396(b)); $430,815,000: Provided, That not more than $1,600,000 of reimbursements received incident to the operation of the General Accounting Office Building shall be available for use in fiscal year 1994: Provided further, That this appropriation and appropriations for administrative expenses of any other department or agency which is a member of the Joint Financial Management Improvement Program (JFMIP) shall be available to finance an appropriate share of JFMIP costs as determined by the JFMIP, including the salary of the Executive Director and secretarial support: Provided further, That this appropriation and appropriations for administrative expenses of any other department or agency which is a member of the National Intergovernmental Audit Forum or a Regional Intergovernmental Audit Forum shall be available to finance an appropriate share of Forum costs as determined by the Forum, including necessary travel expenses of non-Federal participants. Payments hereunder to either the Forum or the JFMIP may be credited as reimbursements to any appropriation from which costs involved are initially financed: Provided further, That to the extent that funds are otherwise available for obligation, agreements or contracts for the removal of asbestos, and renovation of the building and building systems (including the heating, ventilation and air conditioning system, electrical system and other major building systems) of the General Accounting Office Building may be made for periods not exceeding five years: Provided further, That this appropriation and appropriations for administrative expenses of any other department or agency which is a member of the American Consortium on International Public Administration (ACIPA) shall be available to finance an appropriate share of ACIPA costs as determined by the ACIPA, including any expenses attributable to membership of ACIPA in the International Institute of Administrative Sciences: Provided further, That of the amount provided under this heading, not to exceed $500,000 shall be available for a broadbased organizational performance review of the General Accounting Office, focused on agency structure, skills, staffing, systems, and its execution of its statutory and assigned responsibilities.

TITLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 301. No part of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be used for the maintenance or care of private vehicles, except for emergency assistance and cleaning as may be provided under regulations relating to parking facilities for the House of Representatives issued by the Committee on House Administration and for the Senate issued by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

SEC. 302. No part of any appropriation contained in this Act shall remain available for obligation beyond the current fiscal year unless expressly so provided herein.

SEC. 303. Whenever any office or position not specifically established by the Legislative Pay Act of 1929 is appropriated for herein or whenever the rate of compensation or designation of any position appropriated for herein is different from that specifically established for such position by such Act, the rate of compensation and the designation of the position, or either, appropriated for or provided herein, shall be the permanent law with respect thereto: Provided, That the provisions herein for the various items of official expenses of Members, officers, and committees of the Senate and House of Representatives, and clerk hire for Senators and Members of the House of Representatives shall be the permanent law with respect thereto.

SEC. 304. The expenditure of any appropriation under this Act for any consulting service through procurement contract, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 3109, shall be limited to those contracts where such expenditures are a matter of public record and available for public inspection, except where otherwise provided under existing law, or under existing Executive order issued pursuant to existing law.

SEC. 305. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and subject to approval by the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, amounts may be transferred from the appropriation "Library of Congress, Salaries and expenses" to the appropriation "Architect of the Capitol, Library buildings and grounds, Structural and mechanical care" for the purpose of purchase, rental, lease, or other agreement, of storage and warehouse space for use by the Library of Congress during fiscal year 1994, and to incur incidental expenses in connection with such use.

SEC. 306. (a) The General Accounting Office, the Government Printing Office, or the Library of Congress may for such employees as it deems appropriate authorize a payment to employees who voluntarily separate before January 1, 1994, whether by retirement or resignation, which payment shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of section 5597(d) of title 5, United States Code.

(b) The number of employee positions authorized for the General Accounting Office, the Government Printing Office, or the Library of Congress, as the case may be, shall be reduced by one position for each vacancy created by reason of a separation under subsection (a). No funds appropriated by this Act for salaries or expenses of any position that is eliminated under the preceding sentence may be used for any other purpose.

SEC. 307. (a) The number of employee positions, on a full-time equivalent basis, for each covered entity shall be reduced by at least 4 percent from the level, other than those supported by gift and trust funds, as of September 30, 1992, or, with the approval of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, as of a later date, but not later than September 30, 1993. At least 10 percent of the positions eliminated shall be positions the pay for which is equal to or greater than the annual rate of basic pay payable for grade GS-14 of the General Schedule.

(b) The reduction required by subsection (a) shall be completed not later than September 30, 1995, with at least 62.5 percent of the reduction for each covered entity to be achieved by September 30, 1994.

(c) The Comptroller General shall carry out compliance reporting under this section.

(d) As used in this section—

(1) the term “covered entity” means an entity of the legislative branch with more than 100 employee positions, on a full-time equivalent basis, as of September 30, 1992; and

(2) the term “entity of the legislative branch” means the House of Representatives, the Senate, the Office of the Architect of the Capitol (including the Botanic Garden), the Capitol Police, the Congressional Budget Office, the Copyright Royalty Tribunal, the General Accounting Office, the Government Printing Office, the Library of Congress, and the Office of Technology Assessment.

SEC. 308. (a) For fiscal years 1995, 1996, and 1997, the submissions in support of the amounts included in the Budget for each entity of the legislative branch shall set forth a separate category for administrative expenses. For fiscal years 1993 and 1994, the administrative expenses for each entity of the legislative branch shall be calculated and submitted in a separate category in the same format as if submitted in support of amounts included in the Budget.

(b) For fiscal years 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997, the submissions under subsection (a) in the separate category for administrative expenses for each entity of the legislative branch shall include reductions from the amount calculated for administrative expenses for fiscal year 1993, adjusted for inflation, as follows:

(1) Fiscal year 1994, reduction of not less than 3 percent.

(2) Fiscal year 1995, reduction of not less than 6 percent.

(3) Fiscal year 1996, reduction of not less than 9 percent.

(4) Fiscal year 1997, reduction of not less than 14 percent.

(c) The Comptroller General shall carry out compliance reporting under this section.

(d) As used in this section—

(1) the term “administrative expenses” means expenses of contractual services and supplies, other than rental payments, programmatic mission-essential expenses, reimbursable expenses, and expenses required by law;

(2) the term “Budget” means the Budget of the United States Government, submitted under section 1105 of title 31, United States Code; and

(3) the term “entity of the legislative branch” means the House of Representatives, the Senate, the Office of the Architect of the Capitol (including the Botanic Garden), the Capitol Police, the Congressional Budget Office, the Copyright Royalty Tribunal, the General Accounting Office, the Government Printing Office, the Library of Congress, and the Office of Technology Assessment.

RETIREMENT CREDIT FOR CERTAIN PRIOR SERVICE WITH THE HOUSE
CHILD CARE CENTER

SEC. 309. (a) DEFINITIONS.—For the purpose of this section—

(1) the term “House Child Care Center” means the House of Representatives Child Care Center; and

(2) the term “Congressional employee” has the meaning given such term—

(A) in subchapter III of chapter 83 of title 5, United States Code, to the extent that this section relates to the Civil Service Retirement System; or

(B) in chapter 84 of title 5, United States Code, to the extent that this section relates to the Federal Employees’ Retirement System.

(b) CSRS.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), any individual who is an employee of the House Child Care Center on the date of enactment of this Act shall be allowed credit under subchapter III of chapter 83 of title 5, United States Code, as a Congressional employee, for any service if—

(A) such service was performed before October 1, 1991, as an employee of the House Child Care Center (as constituted before that date); and

(B) the employee is subject to subchapter III of chapter 83 of such title as of the date of enactment of this Act.

(2) Credit for service described in paragraph (1)(A) shall not be allowed under this section unless there is paid into the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund, by or on behalf of the employee involved, an amount equal to the deductions from pay which would have been applicable under section 8334(c) of title 5, United States Code, for the period of service involved, if such employee were then a Congressional employee, including interest. Retirement credit may not be allowed under this section for any such service unless the full amount of the deposit required under the preceding sentence has been paid.

(c) FERS.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), any individual who is an employee of the House Child Care Center on the date of enactment of this Act shall be allowed credit under chapter 84 of title 5, United States Code, as a Congressional employee, for any service if—

(A) such service was performed before October 1, 1991, as an employee of the House Child Care Center (as constituted before that date); and

(B) the employee is subject to chapter 84 of such title as of the date of enactment of this Act.

(2) Credit for service described in paragraph (1)(A) shall not be allowed under this section unless there is paid into the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund, by or on behalf of the employee involved, an amount equal to the deductions from pay which would have been payable under applicable provisions of law, for the period of service involved, if such employee were then a Congressional employee, including interest (computed in the same way as interest under subsection (b)(2)). Retirement credit may not be allowed under this section for any such service unless the full amount of the deposit required under the preceding sentence has been paid.

(d) CLARIFICATION.—Nothing in this section shall be considered to relate to the Thrift Savings Plan.

(e) OPM FUNCTIONS.—The Office of Personnel Management shall—

(1) prescribe any regulations which may be necessary to carry out this section; and

(2) with respect to any service for which credit is sought under this section, accept the certification of the Clerk of the House of Representatives concerning the period of such service and the amount of pay which was paid for such service.

SEC. 310. (a) Section 17 of the Act entitled “An Act making appropriations for sundry Civil Expenses of the Government for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and for other purposes”, approved July 28, 1866 (2 U.S.C. 43), is amended by inserting after “mileage” the first place it appears the following: “for each Senator”.

(b) The first section of the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1936 (2 U.S.C. 43a), under the heading “SENATE”, and subheading “SALARIES AND MILEAGE OF SENATORS”, is amended by striking “Senators, Members of the House of Representatives, and Delegates in Congress” and inserting “Senators”.

(c) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall take effect on October 1, 1993.

SEC. 311. The Committee on House Administration of the House of Representatives is authorized and directed to take such action, whether by regulation or otherwise, to transfer to the Clerk of the House of Representatives responsibility for all financial activities of legislative service organizations, including the establishment and maintenance of revolving accounts to receive their dues and assessments and to make disbursements of their ordinary and necessary business expenses in support of Members’ official and representational duties. The transfer referred to in the preceding sentence shall take effect not later than January 1, 1994.

SEC. 312. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used for the relocation of the office of any Member of the House of Representatives within the House office buildings.

SEC. 313. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such sums as may be necessary for the replacement of the Thomas Jefferson Library of Congress Building roof shall be transferred from the funds appropriated to the Clerk of the House in the Fiscal Year 1986 Urgent Supplemental Appropriations Act, Public Law 99–349, and subsequently transferred to the Architect of the Capitol pursuant to the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1989, Public Law 100–458 for Capitol Complex Security Enhancements, to “Architect of the Capitol, Library Buildings and Grounds, Structural and Mechanical Care”: Provided, That not to exceed $7,000,000 may be transferred pursuant to this section.

SEC. 314. Section 316 of Public Law 101–302 is amended in the first sentence of subsection (a) by striking “1993” and inserting “1994”.

SEC. 315. Section 2(a) of the Act of July 25, 1974 (2 U.S.C. 130c(a)) is amended by deleting “$500” and inserting in lieu thereof “$1,500”.

SEC. 316. The Librarian of Congress shall enter into an agreement with the President of the University of Nevada, Reno for the purpose of assisting in the establishment of the Great Basin Intergovernmental Center. The Great Basin Intergovernmental Center is authorized to accept contributions from Federal sources. The Center may also receive contributions both in-kind and cash from private and other non-Federal sources.

This Act may be cited as the “Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1994”.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

*Vice President of the United States and
